VALUES

Campus MaNa Manifesto – the fields of Creation

1. Living in Creation (an approach of Culture as an art of living: create, living, working, training, eating, caring, moving, enjoying...).
2. Place the hand's work at the heart of the practice.
3. Transmit the know-how and knowledge of crafts “à la française”, between tradition and innovation.
4. Provide concrete responses to the skills needs of the design & architecture sectors.
5. Promote trans-disciplinarity.
6. Generate a coherent eco-system anchored in its territory.
7. Encourage and nurture multiculturalism.
8. Invite key figures (architects, designers, artisans, artists, theorists, etc.).
9. Taking into account the challenges of sustainable development and social responsibility in the programs.
10. Experiment with new pedagogical forms.

FOUNDER'S NOTE

« Cerca Trova »

Great-grand-child of a French Furniture Editor and Designer, grand-child of a jazz Musician, son of an Architect, I have always drawn my strength and inspiration from my family heritage and my many travels.

Launching Campus MaNa in 2023 is for me giving life to a childhood dream, that of a place of creation and training around Crafts, Design and Architecture. It is to realize the dream of opening an essential destination to develop an approach to creation as a leitmotiv, where learning, practicing and creating are coming together, day after day.

It means bringing together in one place, a production center with workshops (wood, metal, ceramics, couleurs...) and a training center, to develop the largest community of creators in Europe.

It is basically the project of a lifetime.

I chose to place it in a preserved green setting, here it is, in Champignelles, La Puisaye, a land of creation in Burgundy.

Thomas Dariel, Campus MaNa's founder

DEAN'S NOTE

«Know-how and Invention: Thinking with matter»

The creative process is a permanent back-and-forth between the idea, the gesture and the material means that are implemented so that they become communicable form. From a know-how and practices constantly re-examined and renewed, the creators propose their own world's vision.

Materials are the backbone of art works, from the most traditional to the most technical, with craftsmanship, as well as through the implementation of tools offered by science or technology.

This approach is the founding philosophy of Campus MaNa that allow the creators to develop this direct dialogue with the material in the best conditions, thanks to the various tools available and the transmitted know-how.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

«Dreaming! Creating! At Campus MaNa»

Born from a dream,, Campus MaNa is also a place to dream, where the residents are benefiting from a comfort that allow them to take a distance with the daily material contingencies.

Campus MaNa is an inspired and inspiring place where it is possible to reconcile work and relaxation, self-cultivation and creation.

Working in a workshop, listening to conferences, debating, exchanging, thinking, reading, walking, creating, sharing a meal of local products, enjoying a yoga session ... so many activities that enliven the day on Campus.

Campus MaNa is also the cultural Spanish hostel where everyone comes to share the fruit of their experience and leaves enriched by that of others. Exploring the heritage of La Puisaye and its surroundings allows you to broaden the horizon to the cultural roots of the territory by traveling through time.

Raphael Cuir, Campus MaNa's Managing Director

L'OFFRE DE FORMATIONS PROFESSIONNELLES

The innovative pedagogy of Campus MaNa is based on the contributions of renowned designers / architects (Erwan Bouroullec, Jacques Ferrier, matali crasset, Kiki & Joost...), craftsmen specialists in their discipline (Tristan Colanfrancesco, Les Ateliers Poyaudins, Virginie Lagerbe, Mathieu Luzurier...) and theoreticians (Sara Favriau, Laure Frenandez...) who come to shed light and put into perspective the creative itinerary of the training.

This triptych forms the core of a multidisciplinary approach that summons all the arts and is enriched by numerous other experiences provided on the campus, ensuring participants a comprehensive training that combines conceptual contributions, creation methodology, and technical learning.

EQUIPMENT AND WORKSHOPS

The Indoor Amphitheatre is a thousand square-meter facility built in the 2000's thanks to the support of the European Union. It hosts various events from conferences, masterclasses, and seminars. It will also be home to the Material Library, the Fab Lab, Study Rooms, and Administrative Offices.

The Materials Library offers a wide range of wood, metal, resin, fabric, stone, glass, and innovative material samples... The materials library will be updated according to innovations and trends, but also according to the needs and requests related to different courses.

The Fab Lab is a fabulous room filled with computer-assisted tools, including excellent 3D printers. Our Fab Lab will be interconnected with other fab labs around the world. Each FabLab is created to meet the needs of a community and the direction the fab lab takes is directly influenced by the community that makes it up: the Campus MaNa community that you can be part of!

YET, THE WORKSHOPS ARE THE VERY HEART OF THE CAMPUS

Wood workshop

This 400 square-meter workshop is provided with over 50 tools and machines especially made for woodworking and carpentry.

Metak workshop

This 200 square-meter space is provided with over 30 tools and machines especially made for metallurgy professions. An outdoor forge is completing the workshop.

Ceramics workshop

This 400 square-meter workshop on 2 levels is displaying spaces dedicated to casting and molding. Equipped by large workbenches, well thought, several ceramics towers, enameling cabinets and many kilns.

HOUSING

The campus has several bedrooms for one or two persons, spacious and luminous, with carefully selected furniture to provide a maximum comfort. Each room has a working desk, its own bathroom. In the rooms, sheets and towels are at your disposal and are changed every week.

If you wish to come to MaNa with a larger group, we can offer you off-site options not far from the campus.

The House of Manaïstes is a bourgeois building from the 19th–Century that has been Fully renovated and improved.

The House of Tutors, with its typical Puisaye farmhouse architecture, has been completely renovated and improved, offering spacious and bright rooms. Speakers will find high-end but simple comfort, in keeping with the environment and spirit of the campus.
